

PGDGC Final Examination, 2021
Developmental Psychology
Course: PGDGC-02

Time: 2½ Hours

Full Marks: 50

The figures in the right-hand margin indicate marks.
Candidates are required to give their answers
in their own words as far as practicable

Answer any five of the following questions

10 x 5 = 50

1. Describe Piaget theory of cognitive development. State the implication of Piaget theory in the field of counselling. 5 + 5

 2. What is Kohlberg's theory of moral development? Why is Kohlberg's theory of moral development important in the field of guidance at school level? 5 + 5

 3. Why is adolescence an important stage of life? Explain the statement 'Adolescence: A Time of Opportunity and Risk' in the field of emerging society. 5 + 5

 4. What happens during senescence? What is the difference between aging and senescence? 5 + 5

 5. Describe 'Mental health: Strengthening our response'. State the role of parents in maintaining good mental health. 5 + 5

 6. Why adjustment is important in the field of guidance at our day-to-day life? 10

 7. Describe the parental guidance in the education of gifted children? 10

 8. How school counsellors can help students with ADHD? 10
-